Butch - Want to be a captain? CF will buy lunch

EVERY WEDNESDAY - LeClub - Holiday Inn, North (at the Pyramids)

Registration: 7 - 7:30. Play 7:30 - 10

Take your choice of round-robin or match play for beginners, intermediate and advanced players. Awards: $$$ players' pool, $20 gift certificate, FREEBIE drinks for a variety of reasons, "Bring-your-own-board" DOOR PRIZE. Reservations, please 872-0892.

Challenge "ARISTOTLE" the world champion backgammon computer is the "resident expert" at LeClub thru February. NO CHARGE to let him help you improve your game or beat him and he'll buy a drink!

GROUP INSTRUCTION? Yes, if we get ten or more requests. North Willow Apartment Clubhouse, 1840 W. 86th. Saturday afternoon 1 to 4.

HBC MASTER POINT STANDINGS: Thirty-one big points makes Jim Curtis hard to catch. Twenty-Four points puts Lloyd Baatz in 2nd place and 16 points gives Frank Baldwin 3rd. Mark Jones has retired as the resident expert and will be competing again-- he had a mortal lock on the title last year. Other Scores: Art Overbay-15. Van Vandivier-14 (he has gone back to law school at Bloomington). Dave Armstrong-12. Dorisan Overbay-10. Butch Meese, Gene Elkovits, Bill Russell-9. Neil Ezell and John O'Toole -8. Pete Drippe, Geri Baatz, Donna Susens, Gino Agresti-7. Nick Nichols-6. Mark Carlson, Bill Hodes, Doug Smith, Teri Ivey, Jim Knauer, Margaret Roberts and Jim Grauman-5. New member, Clint McClelland shook everyone a bit his first time out with three tens and a seven in the advanced match play. This gave him 4 points to tie with Jim O'Hagen, Alan Tavel and Steve Zenobia. Complete list will be on display Wednesday night at LeClub.

Ask for entry forms for the Florida Citrus $25,000-tournament in Orlando, Feb 19-22; the 5th Annual Bluegrass, Louisville, March 13-15; the 28th Annual Indiana Open, IAC, April 24-26.
